Restaurants

Arirang €

Arirang is a great Korean restaurant near SSE specializing in Bibimbap.

Address: Luntmakargatan 65, 113 58 Stockholm

Phone: 08- 673 32 25

Good to know: It really fills up at lunchtime, so plan to go off hours or wait for a bit.

Berns Asiatiska €€

Berns Asiatiska serves high-end Asian food in the beautiful Berns Hotel, located right next to Berzelii Park. Berns also has a bistro in the park for more classic European fare.

Address: Berzelii Park 9, 111 47 Stockholm

Phone: 08-566 322 22

Good to know: Berns has a huge buffet of lovely pastries and treats, which can be added on to a meal as dessert, or eaten alone. Don't forget to leave some room!

Hermans €-€€

Hermans is a vegetarian buffet restaurant specializing in delicious vegetarian dishes, natural baked goods and spectacular views.

Address: Fjällgatan 23B, 116 28 Stockholm

Phone: 08-643 94 80

Good to know: It is a good idea to book a table if you can, but there are seats saved for drop-ins, too. Grab a table outside for one of the best views of Stockholm.

Lydmar Hotel Restaurant €€

Lydmar Hotel's cozy restaurant feels a little bit like eating in your living room, surrounded by books and art. Their dynamic menu ranges from burgers to grilled fish.

Address: Södra Blasieholmshamnen 2, 103 24 Stockholm

Phone: 08-22 31 60

Good to know: Lydmar also has a terrace and outdoor bar, weather permitting.

Matbaren €€-€€€

Mathias Dahlgren has two Michelin starred restaurants on the Grand Hotel property, the more casual of which is Matbaren.

Address: Södra Blasieholmshamnen 6, 111 48 Stockholm

Phone: 08-679 35 84

Good to know: Matbaren serves "mellanrätter," or medium sized dishes, rather than starters and mains. Plan to have 2-3 depending on how hungry you are. Reservations are strongly recommended.

Nybrogatan 38 €€

Nybrogatan 38 is known as a neighborhood hangout, as it serves everything from breakfast to late night snacks. The inspiration for the cuisine comes from southeast Europe and Swedish casseroles.

LIBERAL ARTS @ STOCKHOLM SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS

Address: Nybrogatan 38, 114 40 Stockholm

Phone: 08-662 33 22

Good to know: The restaurant can get very busy, so it is a good idea to book a table or call ahead to ensure a table. There are often seats in the bar area for drop-ins, too.

Prinsen €€

Prinsen is a modern bistro with an antique setting. They specialize in brasserie faire, as well as Swedish classics.

Address: Mäster Samuelsgatan 4, 111 44 Stockholm

Phone: 08-611 13 31

Good to know: A great place to try Husmanskost, or traditional Swedish dishes.

Oaxen Slip €€

Oaxen Slip is the “back pocket” (less expensive sister restaurant) to Oaxen Krog, a Michelin starred restaurant. Oaxen Slip is a Nordic Bistro that features local food.

Address: Beckholmsvägen 26, 115 21 Stockholm

Phone: 08-551 531 05

Good to know: The restaurant is located on the island of Djurgården. The menu features some dishes to share, such as an entire fish or rabbit, but also regular dishes.

Speceriet €€

Speceriet is the back pocket to Michelin starred Gastrologik and specializes in fine local ingredients.

Address: Artillerigatan 14, 114 51 Stockholm

Phone: 08-662 30 60

Good to know: Speceriet is a small restaurant and does not take reservations.

Wedholms Fisk €€€

Wedholms Fisk serves the best fish around. The cuisine focuses on serving fresh fish in a traditional style.

Address: Arsenalsgatan, 111 47 Stockholm

Phone: 08-611 78 74

Good to know: The restaurant is pricey. Some dishes are at market price and some are to share, priced per person.

Cafés and bakeries

Chokladkoppen / Kaffekoppen €

Chokladkoppen and Kaffekoppen are located off Stortorget, the main square in Gamla Stan. Look for their orange awning! Chokladkoppen specializes in hot chocolate but also offers coffee drinks and treats.

Address: Stortorget 18/20, 111 29 Stockholm

Phone: 08-20 31 70

Good to know: The cups (or perhaps bowls) of drinks are huge! Come hungry to these cafes.

Café Pascal €

Café Pascal is a beautiful café just around the corner from SSE. Run by three siblings, the café offers good coffee from local microroasters as well as sandwiches, salads, soup, and baked goods.

Address: Norrtullsgatan 4, Odenplan

Phone: 08-31 61 10

Good to know: Fans of Scandinavian design will enjoy the café's interior. The café fills up quickly around lunch.

Sosta Espresso Bar €

Sosta is a traditional, Italian style espresso bar that serves coffees and sweets. It's one of the top ranked cafés in Stockholm on TripAdvisor because of the excellent coffee and authentic atmosphere.

Address: Sveavägen 84, 113 50

Phone: 08-612 13 49

Good to know: Inside the café is standing room only in true Italian style, but there are quite a few tables outside, weather permitting. The café is cash only.

Sturekatten €

Sturekatten is a café that feels like your grandma's living room, housed in a building from the 1700s. You can find coffee, sweets and light meals here.

Address: Riddargatan 4, 114 35 Stockholm

Phone: 08-611 16 12

Good to know: The café is at the top of a narrow staircase. Look for the sandwich board sign at street level to point you up.

Vetekatten €

Perhaps the most classic Swedish bakery in town, Vetekatten offers treats and cakes galore. You can also find a simple lunch here, such as soup or a sandwich.

Address: Kungsgatan 55, 111 22 Stockholm

Phone: 08-20 84 05

Good to know: There is an afternoon tea buffet served on weekdays.
